1. Read: Luke 4: 14-19

- When was the last time God asked you to do something that scared you?
  - How did you respond?
- When was the first time you were filled with the Holy Spirit?
  - What happened then?
  - What was different afterwards?
- When was the last time you were filled with the Holy Spirit?
  - What has stopped you?

2. Random Acts of Kindness

Our kindness is not without premeditation, (we're thinking about it now) or without consideration to its effect (we're extending the kingdom of God into the world). But it is unexpected by the recipient and without any regard for their deservingness. It is like God's grace, impartial.

Pray for a moment and ask God "who is it you would like me to show your impartial love to this week?"

Share the answers together and resolve to carry out your plans.

Pray for one another, that the simple acts you have planned will be, by the power of the Holy Spirit, moments of encountering God for those around you.

3. Kindness leads to repentance

Romans 2:4b says that it is the kindness of God that leads us to repentance.

- Are there any of the people you planned to be kind to this week, who you should be inviting to Alpha next term?
- What are the reasons why you wouldn't?

Commit to praying as a group for those who you have listed, that the barriers you have seen would be removed and that you would have courage.

4. Go on being filled with the Holy Spirit

Pray for one another to be filled afresh with the Holy Spirit.
